Glendalians Enjoy Program By Orpheus Club as Season Closes

The Orpheus club concert last night at the Trinity auditorium in Los Angeles, was enjoyed by a large number of Glendalians.

This concert, which was the final one of the eighteenth season, was regarded by many as the best ever put on by this club. One of the features of the program was a "laughing song" which was so well received that it had to be sung twice. It was preceded by "Killarney" by Balfe and followed by Schubert's "Serenade."

The Orpheus Four, who sang with the club recently upon its Glendale appearance under the auspices of the Kiwanis club, also sang two groups of songs—including "Carolina in the Morning" and "Barney Goodie."

Hugo Kirchofer of Hollywood directed the chorus. He is actively interested in the Hollywood Bowl and frequently directs the community singing at both the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse and the First Methodist church of this city.

Glendale Members
Three members of the club reside in Glendale. They are O. W. Andresen of 359 Myrtle, who was recently made a director, W. S. Hyde of 524 Alexander street, and Stanley A. Searle of 904 East Raleigh street.

Among residents of Glendale, who attended the concert, were the following: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Merrikan and daughter, Miss Anna Merrikan, and Mrs. A. L. Burson; Mrs. H. McDaniel and Frank Jarl; Mrs. F. R. Rentz, Miss Anna Rentz and Miss Charlotte Rentz; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson; George L. Lyons and R. E. Corrigan; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fraser; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hunter; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deal and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rattray; Dr. and Mrs. L. V. Hogue and son, Roy Hogue; Dr. Jack Anderson and M. B. Towman; Mrs. Stanley A. Searle, Mrs. O. W. Andresen and Mrs. W. L. Hyde; P. A. Black, Mrs. Earl Shreck, Miss Martha L. Dodson and Miss Helen Kapas.

Injection Fails to Save Injured Worker

DENVER, June 8.—Adrenalin today failed to revive Pedro Sunega, 49, a city employe who was buried beneath tons of earth when a cave-in occurred in a trench being dug for water mains. Sunega was still alive when his fellow workers rescued him, but died shortly after reaching a hospital where adrenalin was injected. None of the other workmen were injured in the earth fall.

Hello, Mrs. Coleman!

"So sorry I called just as you were going out, but I won't keep you a minute. Going shopping tomorrow. Well, I am going to tell you something of my luck at Pendroy's. They advertised the cutest linen dresses at only $6.95, and they're really $10.00 dresses, too. Yes, they're in all the colors that you will just love. Oh, yes, they have them in all sizes, SO BE SURE AND GO DOWN today and get one!"

"And, really, my dear, I was surprised. I never thought I could get a sport hat at only $3.95, and felt, too. It's just the smartest thing for driving or for my new sport outfit that I have. You haven't seen it? Well, you come over when you come from Pendroy's and see it. They have them in just the colors that can be worn with anything. And with yarn effects that are too attractive, for only $3.95."

"Yes, I bought the kiddies some new hats that just arrived, that I have been waiting so long for; you will want one for Betty when you see Jane's."

"Didn't you say last week when I was over for lunch that you wanted a new silk sport skirt? Yes, I thought you did. They are on sale tomorrow at only $9.75, too. And, too, there is every style that you would want, from the plain model to the knife pleats in Roshanara crepe, cantons and silk ratines that will take you off your feet, almost. In fact, I have never seen such an assortment of colors and sizes on sale before at only $9.75."

"You know I like the sales people there at Pendroy's. Have you ever noticed how interesting and accommodating they are? While waiting for my package to be wrapped up, she told me that they had some little Polly Prim aprons on sale at only 85c, so I looked at them and found them to be just the thing I needed most of all for the kitchen, and, too, you couldn't make them for that, of crepes, ginghams and chambray, with the prettiest color combinations for the final touches of trimming."

"I wish I had time to go back with you to show you what I purchased. In all, I had the most satisfactory day, and so much easier than chasin'g from one place to another. Hope you have the same luck. I believe you will, at Pendroy's. You can always count on them. Well, I won't keep you any longer, because you had better get down there before they close. Remember, they close at 6 o'clock on Saturdays. I will call you again, because I have something to say to you about the club. Well,

"GOOD-BYE."

New Arrests Near in Probe of Kidnaping

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—New arrests in connection with the "white knights" kidnaping and flogging Tuesday of Frank Sanceri, 21, accused by his assailants of attacking 14 year old Astra Jolley, were expected today as the police trailed half a dozen new suspects in the case.

The new police drive on the self asserted "white knights" followed closely on the arrest late yesterday of four members of the gang after they had been identified by Sanceri in Judge Hanby's courtroom.

The four men under arrest, T. W. Jolley, father of the girl Sanceri is said to have mistreated, Arthur W. Jolley and S. L. Jolley, the girl's brothers, and H. E. De Valle, an insurance salesman, were scheduled to be charged with attempted murder today in complaints sworn to by Sanceri. All of the men were being held in jail without bail.

The Rotary Club deliberated at length on the subject, many members giving expression of their views and all pledging their loyalty to the civic needs of Glendale.

W. E. Hewitt expressed the opinion that the Chamber is second only to the City Council as a necessary adjunct to civic life.

Carl H. Kirkman, who, with President Karr, attended the inauguration of a Rotary Club at Inglewood Tuesday night, reported that Jack Williams, dis-

Hot Tip About Gambling! Glendale Handicap Beats Signal Hill Sweepstakes

TALES of liquid wealth go floating about Glendale until one would fear the neighbors all were millionaires. And, by liquid wealth we do not mean that found in the best kept cellars, either, for mighty little vin rouge, Old Scotch or Kentucky rye ever found its way into homes here.

One of the most recent stories told is about a local syndicate that refused to listen to the salesmen of stocks and royalties and proceeded to finance its own little well. As all such stories must conclude, to make them good and worthy of hearing, a rusher came gushing along and these fellows (whose offices are in the vicinity of Brand boulevard and Broadway) are now looked upon as potential "millionaires."

It is a known fact that a local lumberman has been a big winner in the oil game. But he can't be disturbed by kudos and wealth. He invests his money in Glendale real estate as fast as it pours from the well.

Investigation developed that the bridge is in the county of Los Angeles, and, therefore, outside the jurisdiction of the city. It was decided to ask the supervisors to take action. The communication by the school head follows:

Counting His Chickens One of the potential millionaires who spread the word, he was soon to be the Rockefeller of Glendale, has had reverses recently which are customary, and today he needs ready cash the same as the rest of us, although he will be wearing diamonds if all the chickens he is counting hatch out alright. Here's hoping they do.

Making money in oil is like playing the races in the old days. Everybody has that gambling instinct which the promoters recognize. Glendale has been a good field, too, for good sized fortunes have been built up overnight by speculation. But it is a different kind of speculation.

Real estate here is the best bet to be found when it comes to profits which may be seen. We could name over a list of winners in the Glendale handicap that would make the Signal Hill sweepstakes look sick. Admitted, it takes a little longer than 90 days to double your money, we sometimes wonder what the public collector is going to get most of it if you make too much.

So, when you linger long enough on the street corner to hear a tale of liquid wealth, drop into some real estate office and let them tell you of a dozen others who have made just as much and more in gambling on Glendale's future. That's a hot tip, folks. Play it!

Stole Money Sent to Crippled Children

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—The alleged questionable operations, covering many months and extending from Chicago to Los Angeles, in which William G. Munns, alias E. H. Hein, twenty-six, and his pretty wife, Helen D. They are being held pending an investigation of their operations.

BRIDGE MENACES LIVES, IS CLAIM

Supervisors to Be Asked for Action Relieving Dangerous Condition

Written and oral protests were made to the City Council last night relative to the condition of the bridge a half block south of the Central avenue school between Gilbert and Arden streets and used by the children attending the school.

"This bridge is used by school children so we ask you to study the conditions and act before an accident occurs. An automobile accident has already occurred at this point.

"We have reports of so many 'near accidents' that a real one will occur unless action is taken quickly."

A new real estate and insurance firm composed of James M. Rhoades, former secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, and Fred L. Smith, former owner of motor stage lines operating from San Diego to the Canadian border, will open temporary offices at 124 North Brand boulevard this week.

As soon as remodeling is completed they will have exclusive quarters at 106 East Wilson avenue to the rear of Glendale's latest banking institution. With sufficient capital to operate on an extensive scale, Messrs. Smith and Rhoades will be a firm of permanent standing in the community.

Mr. Rhoades needs to introduction as a local booster, having given of his time and money to the development of Glendale as much as any one man in the last three years. He has a large experience in development work, although he will specialize in insurance and bonds, it is stated.

AIRPORT CAUSES PROTEST TO CITY

Planes Make It Impossible to Raise Peaches, Says Owner of Ranch

W. H. Thompson filed a communication with the City Council of Glendale last night in which he protested against the establishment of an airport in a certain portion of the Scott tract, in the northwestern section of the city. His communication was ordered filed, the council taking the view that the matter complained of was a question for the courts to settle. Mr. Thompson wrote:

"I wrote you a letter on March 26, 1923, protesting against the establishing of an airport by the city of Glendale on Lots 4, 5 and 6, Rancho Providencia and Scott tract. Since then, as you know, this port has been conducted by private parties.

"The planes when rising make so much dust that it would make it impossible for me to raise peaches.

In accepting the resignation the members of the board went on record as thanking Mr. McCormack for the work he has done since he has been a member of the committee.

ARBOR DAY

Arbor Day was first celebrated in Nebraska in 1872, it being the idea of Julius Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture under President Cleveland.

Friday is the Sabbath day of the Mohammedans.

"I suggest that you pass an ordinance to the effect that no plane shall fly over the city of Glendale at a height of less than 150 feet, except where rising or lighting upon a field provided for that purpose.

"The planes constantly fly over my property at a height of eight or ten feet from the ground, and have already hit some of my peach trees and broken them.

"I suggest that you pass an ordinance providing that no plane shall start at a distance of less than 400 feet from adjoining property lines, on account of their throwing dust, gravel and any other material that happens to be on the ground, thus ruining adjoining property and being detrimental to health.

HAPPY MARRIAGE RECIPE IS TOLD

Pastor of Gotham's Gretna Green Points Way to Wedded Bliss

By JACK CARBERRY
For International News Service
NEW YORK, June 8.—June—the bride's own month—held promise today of breaking all records for number of weddings in the history of New York.

Dr. Randolph Ray, new, handsome, youthful pastor of the historic "Marrying Church"—the Little Church Around the Corner—is authority for the statement.

Between rapid fire weddings today, Dr. Ray, successor to the late Dr. George C. Houghton, gave his views on "how to be happy though wed."

"First—be sure love exists," Dr. Ray said. "More physical attraction, or mental attraction alone is not sufficient. Real love requires a combination of both."

"Second—remember love is a partnership and marriage is a democracy. The husband is no longer 'king of the home.'"

"Third—have a financial understanding, keeping a joint checking account. The old custom of putting the wife on an allowance is just another way of saying she is on the salary list."

"Must Make Sacrifice"

"Fourth—be prepared to sacrifice. Marriage means giving up much."

"Marriage has withstood all the attacks of the experimentalists. Marriage is about as popular today as ever in history."

The Little Church around the Corner has adopted a new policy. Under Dr. Ray there will be no secret marriages. Run-aways cannot find sanctuary there.

"Many modern marriages are entered into too hastily," Dr. Ray asserted. "Investigation will prove the majority of divorces are directly traceable to this."

"It is my hope that every 'Little Church' marriage will be a lasting one."

Yet in spite of this ban, Dr. Ray has been kept constantly busy during the first week of June. It is literally true he can scarcely step out of his study door without meeting a blushing couple.

COMMENT That's All

Germany Wiggles Along Glendale's Advancement World Needs Workers Schools and Statistics

By Gil A. Cowan

GERMANY may win with diplomacy much that she was supposed to have lost by war. In all of her reparations suggestions to the allies there seems to be set forth a designed financial debility.

Close study of the economic situation in Europe, by American writers, has revealed a strange condition. There is no poverty in Germany; there is no unemployment; there are many capital improvements being made; but there is no stability to the German mark.

In a word, the nation has adopted a policy that its promises to pay are as worthless as the paper they are written upon, or, in the case of paper money, worth less than the stock it is printed upon.

That is a clever idea, everyone admits, yet we doubt the allied nations to whom reparations are due will find some method of collecting, perhaps in products. The French so far have been highly unsuccessful in their attempt.

However, we all watch with interest the writhing of the Berlin diplomats this week in their endeavor to escape "paying the piper." As a people they are too used to free concerts, not to forget their natural thrift, to understand just why the rest of the world wants to tax them for devastating Belgium, a big part of France, and killing a whole heap of good Americans.

Henry Rasmus, industrial commissioner for the city of Glendale, says luck is not bringing fortunes to this city. It's work, he says.

And we believe that more work along the line of locating suitable industries is needed. You can count on your fingers all the people who are turning hands to establish Glendale in an economical sound manner.

As Mr. Rasmus points out, we cannot expect our stores and homes to carry the burden of taxation for a well-organized, healthy city. We must have capital concentrated here in the form of productive machinery which will scatter our tax burden over the whole west.

More Glendale people should lend their help to the industrial commissioner in giving him "tips" on prospective enterprises about to enter the southland; more people should be members of the Chamber of Commerce to advertise that which Glendale now has; and more people should be willing to co-operate in any program that will make for a greater Glendale.

Paving of Glendale avenue—a task that will take six months—will be one of the greatest boons to the city at large we know of. And at the same time the electricing of the Glendale avenue Union Pacific line by the Glendale and Montrose railroad to provide connection with Los Angeles yellow cars will give the community another big boost.

When those two jobs are done Glendale avenue is going to bloom into the gem of the city.

It is going to take years for the culmination of the dream of those who always have held faith, but, like Rome, if you please, Glendale is not to be built in a day.

One hundred seventy-nine students are to graduate from Glendale Union high school at the close of the present term.

My, what a list of young people to be turned loose in the world at one time. It is to be hoped that many of this number conscientiously consider higher education, and if they find they are fitted for college work to continue their studies.

On the other hand, it is wise to suggest that those who would trifle with education these days will do better to leave it alone and learn a trade. The world has too many triflers and not enough workers.

The educational system in California is taxed with students ill-fitted in elemental work or psychologically unfitted otherwise. As a result the state is put to a huge expense of educating girls for teachers, for instance, who never will begin to succeed at the profession; training young men for literary careers who will be a drug on the market; and so on.

Compulsory schooling, free text books, college and university courses without tuition—all have tended to cheapen education to the point where one might say, "if it isn't worth paying for, it isn't worth having."

The Pennsylvania Grange News comments on California's educational situation as follows:

"That the school system of California has fallen into the hands of a political oligarchy, and that it is top-heavy with high-priced and useless spendthrifts, is the statement made by no less an authority than the governor of that state, Friend W. Richardson. It is his opinion that the cause of education would be advanced by the dethronement of political educators, whom he characterizes as unnecessary barnacles, simply interfering with the work of the teachers. What Governor Richardson has to say on this subject is in accord with what Grange News has been saying with reference to the administration of the school system of Pennsylvania.

"For years we have been told that California stood second among the states educationally, and it was, indeed, in the report of the Russell Sage Foundation, which report gave Pennsylvania a rank of twenty-first. And now we have the testimony of the governor of the state that the boys and girls who have attended the schools of California cannot spell correctly, cannot read well, cannot write legibly and cannot do simple problems.

"It is worth noting in this con-

Islam Seeks Nippon's Help, Says Jew Who Served In Turkish Army

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—Warning that the Moslem world is conducting a campaign to align Japan with it in a future move against western civilization is given by Captain Alexander Aaronsohn, a Palestine Jew, who served with General Allenby's army in the Jerusalem drive of the British in the World war.

Captain Aaronsohn in early life served in the Turkish army and obtained a great insight into the ideals and aims of the Ottomans. His prediction of a Pan-Islam reaching from the Bosphorus to the Pacific was made here recently at a meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

"The Moslems are conducting a persistent and intelligent campaign in the Japanese empire that has for its object the creation of two pillars for the world of Islam," Captain Aaronsohn said. "One, the Mohammedan world, as we know it, would rest in a position facing the Christian nations of Europe; the other would rest in Japan, extending its menace toward America."

Cites Lausanne

"Why did the powers of Europe sit pleading with the Turks at Lausanne? Because they feared what might happen if the edict went forth from the Sheik-ul-Islam stirring 250,000,000 Mohammedans to the frenzied fanaticism of a 'holy war.' France had her North African colonies to protect; Britain, Egypt, India and Mesopotamia; and Italy, Lybia and Cyrenaica.

"Where would the Moslems get their huge guns and airplanes? Is a question that might be asked. To this I would reply that not these weapons, but the gradual disintegration of the western world would be their most powerful weapon. The Moslem millions smiled during the World war as they saw the Christian nations that would be behind such a movement."

"The only cure is for the nations of Christian civilization to cease their endless quarreling and shelve their disputes to be settled quietly, in order to present a united front to the ambitious scheme of the Turks for Pan-Islam. Otherwise it will be the history of Byzantium over again on a larger scale."

nection that sixty per cent of the revenues of California are devoted to educational purposes. Is it any wonder that Governor Richardson and the citizens of the state are dissatisfied with the results that have been achieved, if the conditions are as stated?

"The wise expenditure of public funds in the cause of popular education is, of course, to be commended. But when those who direct our public schools, which are intended to teach the boys and girls the fundamentals of real Americanism, attempt to Prussianize them, besides heaping unnecessary burdens of taxation on the people, it is time to call a halt.

"When all is said, the final test of any school system is the product that it turns out, rather than the amount of money that is expended upon it. The rating given the several states by Colonel Leonard Ayers, the statistician who compiled the report of the Russell Sage Foundation, is wholly arbitrary, discarding scholarship in favor of statistics."

Squabble in Cabinet Causes Resignation

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The resignation of the Chinese cabinet was caused by a row between the president of the republic and cabinet members who felt their duties were being encroached on by the president, Minister Schurman has reported to the state department.

Minister Schurman said he did not believe the cabinet resignation would affect the bandit situation or the negotiations over the release of the remaining foreign prisoners.

Crazed Chinaman Is Shot by Manager

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 8.—Anthony Rennie, mill manager, shot and killed Yung Sing, Chinaman, driven insane by a thunderstorm, after the latter had attacked Rennie's wife yesterday at Alder Grove, near here. The Oriental was killed as he made a savage lunge at Rennie with a heavy timber.

Bay City Line Buys U. S. Freight Steamer 2-Day Plane Flight Planned by Japs

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The United States shipping board late Thursday announced the sale of the steel cargo steamer Silverado to the McCormick Steamship line of San Francisco. The consideration was not revealed.

TOKIO, June 8.—Plans for an airplane flight from Heijo, Korea, to Tokio, which will take the best part of two days, are being made by K. Ishibashi, Japanese aviator. The machine is a 300-horsepower Hispano-Suiza.

DANCE WILL END SHRINE MEETING

Capital's Historic Avenue to See 100,000 Nobles Making Carnival

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The greatest carnival that Shrinehood has ever held in the half century of its merrymaking will come to a close here tonight with the greatest dance ever staged in the United States. It is called "The Dance of the States."
One hundred thousand people, perhaps more, will participate, and staid old Pennsylvania avenue, whose history is replete with marches of pomp and power and dignity, will furnish the dance floor.

The historic avenue, from the White House to the capitol, will present a mile of dancing Shrines and their guests. The music will be furnished by two bands—the Tripoli temple band of Milwaukee and the Alcazar temple band of Denver.

Furthermore, according to those in charge of the arrangements, Californians, Iowans, New Yorkers, Floridians and people all over the country may participate if they wish. Radio will carry the strains of the music to the furthest limits of the country.

The dance will come to a close around midnight, when the music stops, and the mile-long avenue of merrymakers will join in singing "America."
The Garden of Allah, the court of Shrinehood in front of the White House, will be reserved for dancers from Ohio, the home state of President Harding, and those from Alabama, California, New York and the District of Columbia. Other states have especially reserved sections on the avenue all the way from the White House to the capitol.

Massed Bands Play
Today, the last of the Shrine convention, saw another great spectacle—a single band of approximately six thousand pieces, playing patriotic airs.

The 119 bands which accompanied the various delegations to Washington amalgamated under the leadership of John Philip Sousa in the American league ball park for a concert. The sound of music swelled over the capital like a strong wind.

SUNLAND

HARD TIME DANCE AIDS C. C. FUNDS

Old and New Numbers Are Enjoyed by Guests at Sunland Frolic

The "Hard Times" dance and entertainment given by the Sunland Chamber of Commerce netted that body several dollars and the patrons several hours of fun. The dance was held at Twin Pines pavilion, and the music was furnished by a three-piece orchestra composed of Jack Bloodgood, violin; Mrs. Jessie Kimpel, piano, and Gerónimo Psenner, saxophone.

Old-time square dances were danced, as well as the latest jazz novelties. The costumes were widely varied, from Farmer Browns to the inevitable Sis Hopkins and the pigtails. Antonio Zouka and a committee composed of the following served an elaborate supper: C. C. Campbell, F. Springer, J. A. Marsh, Jim Koonz, with B. F. Means as chairman.

"Poli poli" in the Congo country means "good-natured big white chief."

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Advertisement.

Orders Japanese Schools To Give Instruction On United States Constitution

SACRAMENTO, June 8.—Striking at the alleged practice of Japanese language schools in teaching loyalty to the "fatherland" and disrespect for American ideals, Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, today served notice on the Nipponese schools that they will be required to give a course in the constitution of the United States, including the study of American institutions and ideals, and require all students to take the course.

Wood's order was issued under authorization granted by Assembly Bill No. 307, recently signed by the governor. This law requires the superintendent of public instruction to prescribe a course for the study of the Constitution and fix the amount of time that must be devoted to it.

In addition to forcing the Japanese language schools to teach the Constitution, the law provides that such courses shall be given in all public schools of the state from the eighth grade upwards. Failure on the part of any superintendent, principal or teacher to observe and carry out the requirements of the law shall be sufficient cause for dismissal.

Wood declared that he has communicated with high school principals suggesting that at least thirty-six 40-minute periods of recitation work on the Constitution be required in each of the first three years of high school and at least seventy-two 40-minute periods during the senior year of the high school. He has suggested a course of at least two units of work on the Constitution in the colleges and universities.

Shipping Facilities
SACRAMENTO, July 8.—In an effort to prevent a repetition this year of the disastrous car shortage which held up the shipment of fruit last summer, Director G. H. Hecke of the state department of agriculture has asked the cooperation of the state board of control in securing new shipping facilities for the coming season.

Hecke and Gilbert B. Daniels of the control board, will attempt to secure the prompt return of California cars for the Pacific coast service.

California crops for this season, according to Hecke, will greatly exceed the production of 1922, when shipments of fruit and vegetables totaled 178,299 carloads. This will put an added burden on the carriers and increase the demand for cars during the rush months of August, September and October.

Cantaloupe shipments from Southern California, which last year totaled 15,472 cars, are now in progress and the railroads are being taxed to handle the greatly increased crop.

The apricot yield this year will be unusually heavy, Hecke said, and the plum crop will also run far ahead of last year's production.

Copper Property Is Sold in Foreclosure

REDDING, Cal., June 8.—The After-Thought Copper Company, owning the copper mines, electrolytic smelter and oil flotation plant at Ingot, was closed out yesterday when the entire property was knocked down under foreclosure sale to Forest P. Tralles of St. Louis for $100,000. Tralles represented the estate of John T. Milliken, St. Louis millionaire, who advanced $1,191,459 to the company. The great copper property now belongs to the Milliken estate and the bondholders who had an agreement before the foreclosure came. Seven thousand stockholders, most of them small ones in the central states, and in the south will realize nothing on their investment as a result of the foreclosure.

Priest Is Killed As Auto Is Overtaken

HELENA, Mont., June 8.—Father John J. Tracey, fifty-five, of New York City, former pastor of the Catholic church in Helena here, and for many years professor in the Christian Brothers high school of Providence, R. I., was killed in an automobile accident on the Mount Road near here late Thursday. Father V. U. Leclair, who accompanied Father Tracey, was slightly injured. Both priests were pinned under their overturned automobile for nearly six hours. Father Leclair administering the last rites of the Catholic church to his companion before the latter died, and he himself was rescued.

Rejected Lover Says Girl Was Twice Wed

SAN DIEGO, June 8.—Lois Garcia, twenty year old Mexican girl, has been placed under arrest here and held for investigation. An unnamed suitor having been turned down after a three months' courtship during which he lavished expensive gifts on the girl, sought revenge by complaining to the police that she already has two husbands—Lupoldo Ramirez, of El Centro, and Casimiro Refito, a Filipino of this city.

"Lois promised to marry me as soon as she could divorce Ramirez," the suitor told the police. "She was to 'forget' the marriage to Refito. Now she tries to give me the gate."

Mexicans Riot When Wages Are Delayed

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—Angered by the failure of a contractor to pay their wages promptly, a crowd of fifty Mexicans surrounded the bank at Santa Fe Springs late yesterday and threatened a demonstration.

Fearing serious developments, an emergency call was sent to the sheriff's office and two officers were rushed to the bank to restore order.

The payments were delayed, according to reports received here, and the contractor promised to meet the laborers at the bank later and give them their money. When the employer failed to appear at the appointed time the workers began shouting threats.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE

"My Friend, the Devil," the new William Fox special picture, showing today for the last times, at the Glendale Theatre, presents an excellent evening's entertainment, and carries with it a theme that makes audiences think. In addition a climax so thrilling is offered that it is doubtful if a more gripping sequence has ever been portrayed on the screen.

The story of "My Friend the Devil," was adapted by Paul E. Sloane from Georges Ohnet's celebrated French novel "Doctor Rameau," and the film was directed by Harry Millarde, the man who made "Over the Hill."

The theme of the story is a battle between faith and love, on the one hand, and unbelief and science on the other. Barbara Castleton, Peggy Shaw, Charles Richman and William Tooker are in the cast.

EVIDENCE TURNS INTO HARD CIDER

Jury Gives Defendant Benefit Of Doubt and Votes 'Not Guilty' Verdict

Glendale's little Volstead act was not sufficient yesterday afternoon to convict K. Antovich of 1941 North San Fernando road on a charge of selling hard cider, because the officers held the evidence too long, it is claimed by Attorneys James F. McBryde and E. J. Wix for the defendant. The jury which heard the case learned that police officers bought the apple cider, which Antovich claimed was very fresh, on May 4. It was turned over to Miss De Haven, city bacteriologist, who made the analysis three days after the stuff was seized. Then it showed 12 per cent alcoholic content.

Perhaps it was no fault of the police department, perhaps the bacteriologist was not responsible for the delay, but Antovich could not be held liable for what fermented during the lapse of three days, the defense contended.

Those On Jury
City Attorney Ray Morrow made a plea that the city's little Volstead act be upheld. "Not guilty" was the verdict. The jury was composed of the following citizens: Edward S. Lawrence, William J. Berg, Ray K. Evans, Claud Berger, Robert H. Freeman, Wallace Fleer, Curtis Hargett, John W. Bartow, J. Q. Gilman, Leslie E. Bennett, Mrs. Emil Baruch and Mrs. L. L. Barton.

ENDORSES C. OF C. EXPANSION DRIVE

Glendale Advancement Assn. Approves Site Chosen For Depot Site

A resolution endorsing the expansion of the Chamber of Commerce was approved yesterday noon at 201 East Harvard street at the weekly luncheon of the Glendale Advancement association. The matter was brought up by Percy J. Hayselden of 901 South Glendale avenue, director of the Chamber of Commerce. Motion that the resolution submitted should be adopted was made by Dr. Jessie A. Russell of 208 South Brand boulevard and seconded by Frank L. Fox of 345 North Kenwood street, president of the Fox-Woodsum Lumber Company. Charles F. Stuart of 633 East Broadway suggested that the resolution should be laid upon the table until the next meeting. "I would regret that this matter should be laid over," remarked Mr. Hayselden emphasizing the importance of the community getting behind the Chamber of Commerce. The twenty-page booklet, which is being published to advertise Glendale, was commented upon by Mr. Hayselden who suggested that a committee, composed of representatives from various civic organizations, should examine the proof for errors.

O. K. Depot Site
Without discussion, a motion, put by S. C. Kinch of 328 North Brand boulevard, endorsing the location of the new Southern Pacific station at the end of Cerritos avenue was carried. The personnel of a committee to represent the organization in securing a new location for the post office was discussed at some length.

Dr. Russell expressed her opinion that the new post office should be located on Broadway between Brand boulevard and Glendale avenue. She stated that she did not believe in "geography" in civic affairs.

C. W. Inglede of 632 East Broadway called attention to the fact that an ardent attempt is being made to locate the new post office on Brand boulevard near Maple avenue. Mr. Stuart added that attempts are being made to locate it on Central avenue and on North Brand boulevard. He said that, if it should be placed between Louise and Jackson streets on Broadway, he would feel satisfied. He remarked that the community really needs about four post offices, one in the center of the city, another in Southern Glendale, a third near Casa Verdugo and a fourth in Verdugo Canyon.

Basis for Pardons Is Told by Governor

YOSEMITE, Cal., June 8.—"A man who wants a pardon must show me what the judge, the prosecuting attorney and the individual jurors think of the case," declared Governor Friend W. Richardson yesterday in telling the district attorneys' association in convention here the only basis on which he will consider pardoning criminals.

"I won't pay any attention to petitions signed by all of the jurors on the same piece of paper," he continued, "because some men are so weak they will sign anything out of sympathy even after they voted for conviction. My secretary has standing instructions to get individual expressions from each juror in such cases."

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful. This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Advertisement.

Consider Bids for Coast Line Vessels

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Negotiations for disposal of the United States shipping board's Pacific coast lines were discussed late Thursday at a conference between Board Chairman A. D. Lasker, Gill Carter, president of the Pacific Mail Lines, and Robert M. Dollar, of the Admiral Lines. The western shipping men explained in detail their offers for the government's holdings on the Pacific coast.

After the conference Lasker announced the bids had been lower than the minimum previously fixed, but declared the negotiations would be continued.

DEMPESEY'S BOUT WITH WILLS OFF

Commission Ignores Clamor Of Fans For Battle With Panther

By DAVIS J. WALSH for International News Service
NEW YORK, June 8.—In spite of fervent statements to the contrary, there will be no Dempsey's bout on Labor Day or any other day. That much is down in the ink in red ink.
 The New York state athletic commission, under the jurisdiction of which the bout must be conducted, has decided to ignore the annual flurry over the fight, and to issue a natural death from nutrition.
 It is known that the enterprise must be liquidated during the present off-season, if at all. It is known that the promoters must have ample time to prepare for the fight, and that it will be criticized alike whether it permits or disallows the fight.

Project Is Dead
 The Dempsey-Wills match will be taken place because opposition to it has concentrated, not among the reformers, but among many influential factors for one banner. Promoter Tom Courke has informed the writer that he is certain the bout can go on but Thomas has a frayed cuff at the family closet. The thing is dead as last week's cabbage. Wills is the victim of several fortunes, paramount among which is the fact that he happened to be born a decided brunette. He prevented him from getting Dempsey's engagement while he, Wills, was in his prime. It will take time to be so, even though the fact might be established that Wills has no chance to win.

The Sport Crucible

By Davis J. Walsh

NEW YORK, June 7.—When Dempsey knocked Willard flatter than a plate of soup at Toledo four years ago the innocents sat back, and in tones of vast satisfaction gave voice to this fatuous remark:
 "At last! A champion who will fight." They had every reason to believe that Dempsey would oblige in this respect. He had faced all contenders on his way up to Willard and slapped them silly. He was a fighting man who loved his fist better than his fortune. To all intents and purposes he ate his meat raw. So much for Dempsey, the contender.
 The simple exception, however, was all-important. They should have known that no champion fights unless the spirit—and the box office—moves him. Since beating Willard the hero of Maumee Bay has met just three men—Billy Miske, Bill Brennan and Georges Carpentier—all pushovers. Tom Gibbons may or may not develop similar tendencies at Shelby, Montana, July 4. So much for Dempsey, the champion.
 They are making much of Luis Firpo because the South American contender is willing to sign for matches without tedious preliminaries and arguments, it is the common belief that Firpo would be a fighting champion. It is to guffaw. Even now we can see Firpo, as champion, giving promoters the elevated eyebrow.
 That seems to be the accepted

Sport Snaps by JACK KEENE

Did ye have any money on Zev?
 "No, I was gonna play him, but—"
 This may not be a record, but at least it is a record of mention. In the first inning of a recent game at the Polo grounds between the Cards and Giants six Cardinals and eleven Giants went to bat and of the total of seventeen players to toe the scratch, eleven hit safely and one reached first base on a pass. Of the seven hits made by the Giants six were made in a row before a man had been retired. The hitting was done in this fashion: For the Cardinals, Smith singled, Flack hit into a double play, Hornsby, Bottomley and Stock singled and Myers lined to Menzel. For the Giants, Bancroft and Jackson singled, Frisch tripled, Meusel singled, Young tripled, Kelly singled, O'Connell walked, Snyder forced O'Connell, Ryan popped out, Bancroft at bat for the second time in the inning doubled and Jackson ended the inning by being thrown out.

SPORTS CHATTER

Of the high-priced youngsters who were bought by the major leagues from the minors, Willis Kamm of the San Francisco club, who was bought by the Chicago Americans, seems to have settled the question as to his purchaser getting his money's worth. Here's what the New York Sun has to say about Willis: "He makes difficult plays with so little effort that they look like common plays. Kamm is a straightaway worker, and Gleason has a gem."
 Of course this system could be introduced in mid-season and the clubs will have to go along as they are, but it would seem the part of policy to bring the matter up after the season is over and inaugurate it with the 1929 season.

The system also would do away with a lot of the bidding which runs the purchase figures for players up into the six figures, as was the case with Kamm. Only a rich club can afford to pay these figures and the poorer clubs have to do what they can with what is left, obviously unfair, but alive long as the bidding policy for the league which makes its money by the sustained interest of the fans. The question is an acute one in the major leagues, but as yet it has not entered into the scheme of things as far as the coast is concerned.

The World Over

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

With the constantly increasing number of entrants in championship events in all lines of sport, a serious question has been arising lately as to how the situation can be handled. With too many preliminaries, contestants become worn out before the finals arrive and are unable to do themselves justice.

Among the sports confronted with this vexatious question is that of track and field athletics. There is hardly any set of games of a national reputation in which the entries do not mount up into the hundreds.
 The fact that the University of California has, for three successive years, been able to wrest the national collegiate track and field title from all comers with a team that, comparatively, was a mere handful of men compared to the number of entrants from some of the other institutions, brings forcibly to mind that there should be some limit placed on what is known as a track and field team.
 Football specifies that there shall be only eleven men on the field at one time. Baseball requires that there shall not be more than nine. Each game allows substitutes. There have been those who have advocated that even the number of substitutes on a football team should be specified, inasmuch as a big college is able to place two and three in the field during the progress of a single contest, while the smaller college has to go through the entire play with its original players. Manifestly it is not good sportsmanship to pit fresh men in against tired ones.
 In the same way, there seems to be no reason why a track team should not be limited as to numbers. Whether it should be fifteen, seventeen, twenty or twenty-five is a matter that would have to be threshed out, but the outstanding point is that there

Clean Up Shelby, Is Atty.-General's Order

HELENA, Mont., June 8.—There will be no world's heavyweight championship contest between Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons, July 4th at Shelby, Mont., unless authorities of that city instigate a clean-up that will rid the town of all undesirables, declared Attorney-General Rankin.
 Reports that Shelby was filling up with alleged plug-uglies, thugs, pickpockets, rum runners and riff-raff of the underworld of the larger cities is said to be responsible for Attorney-General Rankin's action.

Hagen, Sarazen Lose To British Golfers

LONDON, June 8.—George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, noted British golfers, defeated Walter Hagen and Gene Sarazen, American champions, four up and three to play Thursday in the best ball match, preliminary to the British open golf championship. The Americans finished the morning round one up, but succumbed to the spectacular play of their rivals in the afternoon.

THE FANNING HIVE

By NORMAN E. BROWN
 While others Are battling for honors as home run hitters

Johnny Mostil, busy outfielder of the White Sox, seems to hanker for the tripling championship. He has been setting the pace in this division of the batting race all season.

Last year Johnny slammed out fourteen triples. Ty Cobb led the league with eighteen and Dolly Jacobson, George Sisser and Joe Judge were the only others to finish above Mostil.

This is Johnny's third year in last company (as far as real time is concerned) and also his third year with the Sox. The Chicago owners picked him up in 1918 and he played ten games at second base before they farmed him to Milwaukee in 1919. The Brewer bosses turned him into an outfielder, using him occasionally at second, however. His fielding and his .318 batting record in 1920 caused the Sox to call him in. He has played the outfield regularly ever since.

His success in Chicago is unusual in view of the fact that he's a home town boy. He was born there June 1, 1897.
